

Mr. Ramsey,

Mr. Ramsey,

Listen carefully! We are a group of individuals that represent a small foreign faction. We respect your business but not the Country that it serves. At the time we have your daughter in our possession. She is safe and unharmed and if you want her to see 1997, you must follow our instructions to The Letter

You will withdraw one hundred eighteen thousand dollars from your account. One hundred thousand dollars will be in 100 dollar bills and the remaining eighteen thousand dollars in 20 dollar bills. Make sure that you bring an adequate size ATMs to the bank. When you get home you will put the money in a brown paper bag. I will call you between 8 and 10 am. Tomorrow to instruct you on delivery. The delivery will be exhausting so I advise you to be rested. If we monitor you getting the money early, we might call.

"Our London business is good, but Vienna and Berlin are quite quiet. Mr. D. Lloyd has gone to Switzerland and I hope for good news. He will be there for a week, at 1496 Zermat St., and then goes to Turin and Rome, and will join Col. Perry, and arrive at Athens, Greece, Nov 27th, or Dec. 2nd. Letters there should be addressed: King James Blvd. 3580. We expect Chas. E. Fuller, Tuesday, Dr. L. W. Skaid and Root. Unger, Esq. left on th 'Y.X.' Express tonight."

IDENTIAL

Today is May 20, 1987. We are sitting in a lovely office with a large glass topped table. Officer Trujillo is sitting to the left of the table. He has been very quiet throughout the morning. My young attorney (good looking but he smokes! ☹) is seated across the table from me. He looks bored.

Two gentlemen from the C.B.I. are on my right. They have been very professional throughout the morning. I do not envy their job, but I do hope that they will finally be able to dispell the notion that some think I wrote the note. I did not.

There is also a gentleman to my immediate left who has been taking copious notes. What a boring job.

Sample letter

The day is lovely outside and I hope that we will soon be finished so that I can go. I miss darling Jonni B. She would have liked this day too.

Love, Mommy
